STIFFLER MCGRAW TO BE INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME

Hollidaysburg, PA – Stiffler McGraw a full service consulting firm offering civil engineering, surveying and architectural design services, headquartered in Hollidaysburg, PA is pleased to announce they were selected to be inducted into the Blair County Chamber of Commerce Business Hall of Fame.

Hall of Fame inductees are chosen by an anonymous panel of judges representing a cross-section of business expertise and geography to guarantee that the process will be both comprehensive and fair. Nominees are selected upon the review of the company's application submission. To be considered for the Business Hall of Fame Award, some of the criteria entails, having a business in Blair County for at least 25 years, being recognized for business achievements, being active in the community, showing leadership and demonstrating stability.

President Timothy Cooper expressed, "We are extremely proud and honored to have been selected by the panel of judges for induction into the Blair County Chamber of Commerce Business Hall of Fame. This has been made possible by the dedication of our employees to serve the many loyal clients we have worked with over the last 27 years. We will not rest after this accomplishment and will continue to play a role in making Blair County, and Central Pennsylvania, a great place to live and work for many years to come. We will make the Chamber of Commerce proud to call us a member of their Business Hall of Fame!"

Stiffler McGraw along with three other companies will be inducted at the Blair County Chamber of Commerce Business Hall of Fame dinner on October 24th at the Blair County Convention Center.

For a full list of inductees and winners for other awards presented at the Hall of Fame dinner visit the Chamber's website at www.blairchamber.com.
